DESIGNER HANDBAG ADDENDUM

Designer handbags are consigned according to our consignment contract with the following amendments:

All designer handbags must be authenticated. The authentication fee of $10 is waived for authentic designer handbags. The fee will be applied to the consignor's account if the bag is not authentic or the consignor decides to not consign the bag.

Designer handbags are on your account for 90 days with the consignor receiving 50% of the selling price. If items are not picked up before the 90 days the item expires off the consignor's account. Expired items become property of Stephen Lawrence Ltd and may be donated, sold or otherwise discarded. Items sold after expiration will not be credited to the consignor's account.
